

Rachel Kramer, NCTM, holds Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in piano performance from Eastern Illinois University and a Master of Music in piano performance and pedagogy from The University of Michigan and is an adjunct faculty member at Wilmington College where she teaches piano classes and accompanies the College Chorale and College-Community Chorus. She is the President of Music Learning Center, Inc. in Cincinnati, and from 1990-1996, Kramer served as the Manager of Educational Programs for the Baldwin Piano & Organ Co.

She is the Associate Director of Music at St. John's Unitarian Universalist Church and was the Associate Director and Accompanist of MUSE – Cincinnati's Women's Choir for 17 years. She is the Director of Member Development for MTNA where she has also held the positions of Assistant Executive Director, Director of Education and Member Liaison since joining the staff in 1998.

Rachel serves as immediate past-president and VP-Communications for the OMTA - Southwest District Music Teachers Association, serves on the Greater Cincinnati Area Coalition for Music and Wellness, served on the 2012 World Choir Games Music Advisory Committee and is the Co-District Liaison for the Heartland District of the UUMN.

Rachel is the 2009 Ohio Independent Music Teacher of the Year. She is a certified MTNA Specialist in Group Piano Teaching and Recreational Music Making. She is the co-founder of Cincinnati Center for Adult Music Study and co-creator of the piano program at Warren Correctional Institution.

Rachel has published many articles on various topics of teaching and piano pedagogy, has done workshops across the country, adjudicated and has taught group piano to students of all ages for over 25 years from colleges to country clubs to cruise lines!